

Park Pod

Park pod is a step up in modular workpods: a statement element that sets the atmosphere of a space. The pod with design inspired by nature. Park's shape can be traced to swooping hillsides, crisscrossing and curving into one another. Inspired by Nature. Connected Working. Separation without Isolation.

Features

- Along with a 90% wool covering in natural colours Park delivers the wellbeing benefits of biophilic design
- Lightweight, touch-down workspace using materials with acoustics properties which work to minimize distractions and dampen noise
- Park Move: Easy to move around the office floor to wherever it's needed it's ideal for fast-moving companies used to working on the fly, agile of mind and practise
- Park Connect: single park or set up as centrepiece to chain another to provide less linear, and more flowing shapes cross the work place
