Private Office

The nature of work is changing at an exceedingly fast pace, producing new challenges that affect where and how people work. These issues ultimately impact business drivers, culture, and workplace design—a fact that organizations deal with every day.

Organizations have an opportunity to express themselves through the spaces they create. From the simplest request to the complexity of customization, Masters Series® meets your design demands—and we make it easy. Attract, retain, and engage employees through personalized, scalable office spaces with Masters Series.

Befitting Design

The Masters Series standard offering, combined with our Tailored Solutions™ customization capability, empowers individuals with workspaces that help them feel grounded, invigorated, and engaged. From entry-level to executive offices, Masters Series reflects an organization's culture as it supports people's workstyles.

Crafted Quality

Masters Series offers flexibility to be creative with a wide selection of materials. Crafted construction helps create the right aesthetic that suits the organization—from traditional to progressive. Glue and dowel, case-clamped construction and Microfit edgework ensure durability.

Make a Positive Impact

Every piece of sustainably sourced wood furniture is manufactured with an eye on environmental stewardship, achieving FSC certification. Masters Series uses only an eco-friendly, water-based UV-cured wood finishing process called EcoShield Ultra for responsible veneer production. These environmental upgrades are available at no extra charge.

Design Choices

Masters Series is handcrafted to meet customer designs and specifications. Choose from an array of patterns and materials, including top-quality, AWI-selected veneers for the natural beauty of wood. High-pressure laminates and glass, as well as edge options, expand design possibilities. Customize with a selection of hardware and design elements.
