Storage

Strategically dedicating limited resources to help employees do their best work is key for organizational success. Flexible storage solutions improve workplace culture, design, and efficiency, while supporting the diverse and dynamic ways people work.

The extensive X Series® family of products is designed to provide organizations with a complete, integrated storage solution throughout the entire work environment. The vast offering opens up countless possibilities for keeping materials organized and secure, optimizing space design, and supporting people and their varied workstyles.

Optimizing Square Footage

X Series storage saves inches for cost-efficient planning. Pedestals, space-saving workstation lockers, and personal storage towers are ideal for individual needs. For group and higher-density storage needs, lateral files, lockers, and cubbies consolidate resources and materials. Storage islands provide meeting spaces. Recycling stations efficiently manage recycling and waste items.

A Complete Office Solution

With so many choices, X Series lets designers fine-tune the right solutions for open plans, social spaces, private offices, team areas—wherever secure storage is needed. As needs change in the future, X Series adapts. Lateral file drawer inserts add capability. Durable steel-core construction ensures long life.

A Home Base for Mobile Workers

For people without a permanent workspace, X Series lockers and cubbies provide versatile storage. Lockers can be personalized with a variety of interior accessories. Storage islands can be a touchdown space. Reprogrammable digital locks give security. Optional 120V and USB power modules recharge devices.

Design Choices

X Series offers mixed surface options such as painted steel, high-pressure laminate, or premium veneer fronts and tops, providing design flexibility and price scalability. X Series storage is designed to complement X Series casegoods and many other products in the Haworth portfolio for a consistent workplace aesthetic.
