Tables and Benching

Environments that support user control and movement for a variety of workstyles foster well-being. Taking a people-first design approach in the workplace leads to enhanced engagement, creativity, innovation, and retention—maximizing workforce investment and potential.

Planes® tables and benching support the needs of people as they move throughout the day. Designed as a global platform for individual workstations, training sessions, or collaborative interactions, Planes and Planes LT provide solutions that support productivity, ergonomics, and technology. As work and business needs change, Planes tables and benching easily adjust.

Encourage Movement

Give people the choice to sit, stand, and change postures throughout the day. Planes offers a wide range of height-adjustable configuration possibilities to create individual workstations, as well as dual-sided, single-sided, and 120° benching applications. Available with electronic controls, Planes and Planes LT offer standard and extended height ranges, plus optional programmability. Both lines also support a variety of work tools, storage, and accessories, offering solutions engineered for any budget.

Enhance Learning

Planes training tables work together in dynamic applications to help ensure people stay engaged and connected with learning. Surfaces accommodate meetings and training sessions with technology devices for ad hoc or classroom-style settings. Planes training tables are designed for people to effortlessly move around and easily reconnect to power and data.

Nurture Interaction

Planes tables allow people to quickly come together in a variety of ways—from formal meetings to spontaneous interaction. Conference tables create a strong statement with smart surface cutouts, power distribution, and wire management. Multiple surface options, varied table heights, and a cohesive aesthetic optimize collaboration in lounge and social settings. Complement interactive activities with carts, credenzas, easels, and information boards that bring design continuity to any space.

Design Choices

With a wide range of choices for tops, bases, edge options, and finishes, Planes tables and benching offer a breadth of application variety and easy specification. As part of Haworth's Integrated Palette™, Planes and Planes LT coordinate with other product lines to create complete environments.

Statement of line may vary by global region.
